

BPL interference to the amateur service bands can potentially devastate the service. Please be reminded the critical historical role we have played in emergencies and the development of new communication technologies.